

THE PLACES WE COME FROM, Real & Imagined

June 7-9, 2018 Chaminade University

2018 FREE TEEN WORKSHOPS for Grades 7-12

Friday, June 8

10:15am-12:30pm

Chaminade University

Poetry Workshop with Lyz Soto

Lyz is an award-winning poet and spoken word artist. She is the co-founder of Pacific Tongues and was the Executive Director of Youth Speaks Hawai'i from 2008-2012.

Illustration Workshop with Patrick Ching

Patrick is known for his nature art featuring landscapes and animals of Hawai'i. His picture book Hoku and Hina received a Ka Palapala Po'okela Award of Excellence in 2015.

Saturday, June 9

1:00-3:15pm

Chaminade University

Fiction Workshop with Lehua Parker

Aunty Lehua's middle-grade novel One Boy, No Water (book 1 of the Niuhi Shark Saga) was nominated for a Nene Award. She also writes short stories, poetry, plays and novellas.

Illustration Workshop with Tammy Yee

Tammy is an author and illustrator who has published over 36 children's books. Some of her recent work includes A True Princess of Hawai'i and Wanda's Humpback Hula Show.

PRE-REGISTRATION is required. Space is limited; workshop is for teens only. Workshop is FREE. The conference is also free, and teens are encouraged to come at 8:45am for Lee Cataluna and Patrick Ching's keynote addresses and attend other sessions during the day.

For more information and to register, visit www.childrensliteraturehi.org